

6516205166.txt

I am a new subscriber to XM, and I love this system. I pay for XM because I am sick and tired of the advertising on the airwaves. The amount of ads during the hour have increased substantially and I no longer listen to my local stations. If the Broadcasters want me back they should spend the money that they use to pay their lobbyists to fund commercial free airtime!!!!